Covid19 Protocols for Masses at this present time.

Please do not be late, as the Church doors will close shortly after the start to prevent disruption to mass. If you don't arrive before the Homily the church will be closed and you may not be allowed in.
Social Distancing Alert: Please do not hug, shake hands or make other physical contact while in the Church or on Church grounds.
On Arrival at Mass:

- Check in with Marshall Cleanse your hands with the sanitiser provided before entering the Church

When In The Church

- Please fill pews from the centre to the aisle so that no one crosses in front of you breaking social distancing
- Please be quiet, respectful and reverent while waiting for mass to commence. This is prayer time for many parishioners.
Please do not go to other areas of the Church to minimise the cleansing process that occurs after each mass.
After Mass each parishioner will be handed a disinfectant wipe at the end of mass. Please cleanse your seat and any surface that you made contact with.

Please do not come to mass if:-

- You have a temperature or flu-like symptoms
- You have not received an invitation to attend the mass, if there are no seats left you will be asked to stand outside the church.

We thank all the parishioners and friends of families, for your patience during this time and thank Jeff Haywood, all the Marshalls and volunteers who are helping us to adjust to all the regulations.

Donations of balls of wool thank you to all those who have dropped wool to the parish office.
