DJYM YOUTH NEWS

Join us at DJYM this Sunday night 6:30-8:30pm as we explore the significance of the Apostles Creed and why it is an integral part of our faith.

REVIVAL RETREAT

This is our first Intergenerational Youth Led 'REVIVAL' 3 day Retreat which is extended to all parish families held on 25-27 June at Moogerah.

We are excited that Luke and Sarah Thomsen, Ella Mizzi from Insight Wellbeing and a Archdiocesan representative, will be the keynote speakers for this retreat experience.

Fr Harry Chan the Chaplain from ACU will be journeying with us offering Mass and the Sacraments. We will be running youth, adults and children formation sessions simultaneously allowing each generations their own spaces to nourish their faith.

The cost is $100 per person however sponsorship is available to DJYM members who require financial support. The registration and code of conduct forms are available on the website at <https://darrajindaleecatholicparish.org.au/youth/>

Please connect with Luisa at ym.darjin@bne.catholic.net.au should you wish to know more or help in some way.

CHURCH OF THE TWELVE APOSTLES 111 Yallambee Road JINDALEE

Prayer support available after Mass – It has been 2 months since we started this initiative in our parish. Various parishioners have been taking advantage of this opportunity for Prayer Support after Masses in each of our Parish Churches! This will be available on the 2nd and 4th weekend each month. The schedule for this is on the notice boards in both churches. After these Masses, there will be the opportunity to come up for Prayer Support. Each person can receive 3 to 5 minutes of prayer with 2 members of the Prayer Teams.* In James 5:14, it says "When anyone is in need of help, let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him". We encourage you to take full advantage of this wonderful opportunity. If you have any queries, please call Audrey on 0435 558 390.

Breaking Open the Word

You cannot belong to Christ Jesus unless you crucify all self-indulgent passions and desires. Since the Spirit is our life, let us be directed by the Spirit.

■ The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia! / Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful / and kindle in them the fire of your love. / Alleluia!

GOSPEL

In 15: 26-27; 16: 12-15

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

The Spirit of truth will guide you into all the truth.

Jesus said to his disciples:

‘When the Advocate comes, whom I shall send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who issues from the Father, he will be my witness.

And you too will be witnesses, because you have been with me from the outset.

I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now. But when the Spirit of truth comes he will lead you to the complete truth, since he will not be speaking as from himself but will say only what he has learnt; and he will tell you of the things to come.

He will glorify me, since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine. Everything the Father has is mine; that is why I said: All he tells you will be taken from what is mine.’

PENTECOST SUNDAY / B

THE SAVING WORD

23 MAY 2021

FIRST READING

Acts 2: 1-11

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles
They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak different languages.

When Pentecost day came round, the apostles had all met in one room, when suddenly they heard what sounded like a powerful wind from heaven, the noise of which filled the entire house in which they were sitting; and something appeared to them that seemed like tongues of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak foreign languages as the Spirit gave them the gift of speech.

Now there were devout men living in Jerusalem from every nation under heaven, and at this sound they all assembled, each one bewildered to hear these men speaking his own language. They were amazed and astonished. ‘Surely’ they said ‘all these men speaking are Galileans? How does it happen that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judaea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya round Cyrene; as well as visitors from Rome – Jews and proselytes alike – Cretans and Arabs; we hear them preaching in our own language about the marvels of God.’

■ The word of the Lord.

RESP PSALM

Ps 103: 1, 24, 29-31, 34. R. v. 30

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth. (or: Alleluia)

1. Bless the Lord, my soul! / Lord God, how great you are! / How many are your works, O Lord! / The earth is full of your riches. R.
2. You take back your spirit, they die, / returning to the dust from which they came. / You send forth your spirit, they are created; / and you renew the face of the earth. R.

3. May the glory of the Lord last for ever! / May the Lord rejoice in his works! / May my thoughts be pleasing to him. / I find my joy in the Lord. R.

SECOND READING

Gal 5: 16-25

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Galatians

The fruit of the Spirit.

If you are guided by the Spirit you will be in no danger of yielding to self-indulgence, since self-indulgence is the opposite of the Spirit, and the Spirit is totally against such a thing, and it is precisely because the two are so opposed that you do not always carry out your good intentions. If you are led by the Spirit, no law can touch you. When self-indulgence is at work the results are obvious: fornication, gross indecency and sexual irresponsibility; idolatry and sorcery; feuds and wrangling, jealousy, bad temper and quarrels; disagreements, factions, envy; drunkenness, orgies and similar things. I warn you now, as I warned you before: those who behave like this will not inherit the kingdom of God. What the Spirit brings is very different: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, trustfulness, gentleness and self-control. There can be no law against things like that, of course.
