Thank you to all those who participated and help in celebrating the Feast of St Padua. A collective gift was raised of $400 which will be given to the poor in Nigeria via Father Nicholas Okafor. God bless you all.

Mrs Flavie Vacher has kindly donated woollen shawls for families with young children (1-5yrs) to help keep them warm in the winter. We thank Flavie for her many years of crocheting for those in need. If you would like a shawl for your child please call the parish office. If anyone has spare balls of wool to give to Flavie please donate to the parish office. Thanks so much

CATHOLIC LEADER - $4. June Issue.

Prayer support available
after Mass

It has been over 2 months since we started this initiative in our parish. Various parishioners have been taking advantage of this opportunity for Prayer Support after Masses in each of our Parish Churches! This will be available on the 2nd and 4th weekend each month.

The schedule for this is on the notice boards in both churches. After these Masses, there will be the opportunity to come up for Prayer Support. Each person can receive 3 to 5 minutes of prayer with 2 members of the Prayer Teams. We encourage you to take full advantage of this wonderful opportunity.

If you have any queries, please feel free to call Audrey on 0435 558 390. The Prayer Teams have undergone extensive prayer training, and are all commissioned by the Prayer Centre under the authority of Archbishop Mark Coleridge.

This service is strictly confidential.
