Dear Parishioners of Darra -Jindalee Catholic Parish,
I write to you during a time of great sadness at the loss of your beloved Parish Priest Fr Dan.
On the 6th of August the Archbishop appointed me as administrator of your Parish.

In effect my role is to care for your parish for this time of waiting until a new Parish Priest can be appointed.
I hope to be able to work with the Parish Staff, Parish Finance and Community councils, School leadership team and many Parish groups to continue the great work of Fr Dan.

I have known Fr Dan for over 50 years through family connections, so it is with a humble heart that I now care for his beloved Darra -Jindalee Parish and I hope during this time of waiting for a new Parish Priest we can give thanks for his ministry and remember the generous and loving Fr Dan Carroll in our prayers.
Very Rev Mark Franklin
Administrator Darra – Jindalee Catholic Parish
