6TH SUNDAY OF EASTER YEAR B 2024

5th May 2024

The month of May is the month which the piety of the faithful has especially dedicated to Our Lady. The tradition of dedicating the month of May to Our Lady is centuries old, dating back at least 700 years. On the 29th of April, 1965 Pope Paul VI wrote an encyclical on "Prayers During May for Preservation of Peace", focusing on the Virgin Mary. He wrote that the piety of the faithful has long dedicated the month of May to the Mother of God. He stated in his encyclical, Mense Maio - Month of May.

"We are delighted and consoled by this pious custom associated with the month of May, which pays honour to the Blessed Virgin and brings such rich benefits to the Christian people. Since Mary is rightly regarded as the way we are led to Christ, the person who encounters Mary cannot help but encounter Christ likewise."

Abide in my love, Jesus says to us in today's Gospel. How may we do that?

You have your answer in the words that follow. If you observe what I command you, then you will truly abide in my love. But is it love that makes us keep the Lord's commandments, or is it the keeping of them that makes us love him?

There can be no doubt that love comes first. Anyone devoid of love will lack all incentive to keep the commandments. When, therefore, Christ says to us: If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, he is telling us that the observance of the commandments is not the source but rather the measure and touchstone of our love. It is as though he said to us: Do not suppose you are abiding in my love if you are not keeping my commandments, for it is by observing them that you will abide in my love. That is to say, your observance of my commandments is the proof, the outward manifestation, of the fact that you abide in my love.

From the Homilies of St Augustin on the Gospel of St John

EASTER SEASON WITH THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

The Acts of the Apostles written by St Luke portray the life of first Christians and the journey of the Good News from Jerusalem to Rome the capital of the ancient world. This year we are going to reflect on this journey that brought the Good News to Rome.

The reflection/ discussion/prayer with the Act of the Apostles will be held on Tuesdays, May 7 and 14 at 7 pm at the Jindalee Hall.

Please come along with your Bible to explore and reflect on the life of the first Christian communities with their joys, how they were led by the Holy Spirit in these early days when the Good News of the Lord's Resurrection "took off the ground."

SVDP Youth Visit

Last term the Darra Jindalee SVDP Conference Members visited DJYM to share their knowledge and insights into the Corporal Works of Mercy, revealing to us what it is like to serve people as Jesus and founder Blessed Frederic Ozanam. We were empowered so much by their wondrous works that we would encourage all young people in our community to help support us by either becoming SVDP member or donating each week any non perishable food items, blankets or toiletries to aid the Vinnies Winter Appeal. Should you feel called to aid the needy in our community please drop off these items to the Parish Office alternatively connect with Luisa at ym.darjin@bne.catholic.net.au or 0432 330 509.

6th Sunday of Easter 5th May 2024

First Reading

The Acts of the Apostles 10:25-26. 34-35. 44-48

The gift of the Holy Spirit was poured out upon the gentiles also.

As Peter reached the house Cornelius went out to meet him, knelt at his feet and prostrated himself. But Peter helped him up. 'Stand up,' he said, 'I am only a man after all!'

Then Peter addressed them: 'The truth I have now come to realise' he said, 'is that God does not have favourites, but that anybody of any nationality who fears God and does what is right is acceptable to him.'

While Peter was still speaking the Holy Spirit came down on all the listeners. Jewish believers who had accompanied Peter were all astonished that the gift of the Holy Spirit should be poured out on the pagans too, since they could hear them speaking strange languages and proclaiming the greatness of God. Peter himself then said, 'Could anyone refuse the water of baptism to these people, now they have received the Holy Spirit just as much as we have?' He then gave orders for them to be baptised in the name of Jesus Christ. Afterwards they begged him to stay on for some days.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 97:1-4. R. see v.2

The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

1. Sing a new song to the Lord
for he has worked wonders.
His right hand and his holy arm
have brought salvation. (R.)
2. The Lord has made known his salvation;
has shown his justice to the nations.
He has remembered his truth and love
for the house of Israel. (R.)
3. All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.
Shout to the Lord all the earth,
ring out your joy. (R.)

Second Reading

The first letter of St John 1 John 4:7-10

God is love.

My dear people,
let us love one another
since love comes from God
and everyone who loves is begotten by God and knows God.

Anyone who fails to love can never have known God,
because God is love.

God's love for us was revealed

when God sent into the world his only Son
so that we could have life through him;
this is the love I mean:
not our love for God,
but God's love for us when he sent his Son
to be the sacrifice that takes our sins away.

Gospel Acclamation John 14:23

Alleluia, alleluia!

All who love me will keep my words,
and my Father will love them and we will come to them.

Alleluia!

Gospel

The holy Gospel according to John 15:9-17

No one can have greater love than to lay down his life for his friends.

Jesus said to his disciples:

'As the Father has loved me,
so I have loved you.
Remain in my love.
If you keep my commandments
you will remain in my love,
just as I have kept my Father's commandments
and remain in his love.
I have told you this
so that my own joy may be in you
and your joy be complete.
This is my commandment:
love one another,
as I have loved you.
A man can have no greater love
than to lay down his life for his friends.
You are my friends,
if you do what I command you,
I shall not call you servants any more,
because a servant does not know
his master's business;
I call you friends,
because I have made known to you
everything I have learnt from my Father.
You did not choose me,
no, I chose you;
and I commissioned you
to go out and to bear fruit,
fruit that will last;
and then the Father will give you
anything you ask him in my name.
What I command you
is to love one another.'
