9th June 2024 YEAR B

Avoiding the real Jesus

The first way to reject the real Jesus is to domesticate him, and that is what members of his blood family were trying to do. They thought he was 'out of his mind', madly putting himself [and them] in harm's way and he had to be restrained.

Have you or I tried to domesticate Jesus Christ, to reduce him to a non-threatening Jesus-meek-and-mild? If so, we are closer to the family of Nazareth standing just outside his circle, ready to run for cover, than to the new family seated around him, really listening to him and therefore vulnerable.

The second way is to misconstrue all the evidence of Jesus' mission on earth and to claim that he must be in league with the devil, 'He has an unclean spirit'.

If you do this publicly, as did these religious leaders, then you have deliberately put God's plan for the salvation of others at risk, and it is this which is unforgivable. This is real blasphemy.

We might pause for a moment, implore the grace of God, determine to really hear the Gospels, discern the will of God for our lives, and so come back within the ultimate family allegiance of those who dare to call God 'our Father'.

Congratulations to deacons Michael Tran and Bradley Davies, who were ordained to the priesthood at St Stephen's Cathedral last Friday, June 7. At the beginning of their priestly ministry, we pray for them to bring God's love and mercy to the people they will serve in our Archdiocese.

Being ordained on the feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, may their hearts always be like the heart of Jesus, the Good Shepherd who lays down his life for his sheep.

Last Sunday, following the 9 am Mass, we embarked on the Corpus Christi Procession, a significant event where Catholics have, for centuries, publicly demonstrated their faith in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. This procession, held in the neighbourhood of our Darra church, is a powerful testament to our devotion and belief.

As we carried the Eucharist through the streets in a solemn procession, we not only gave a public witness of our faith and devotion towards the Sacrament of the Eucharist, but we also continued a long-standing tradition that has been a cornerstone of our faith for centuries.

Despite the rainy Saturday, we were blessed with a beautiful Sunday morning, perfect for our event. The day was not just about prayer and reverence, but also about coming together as a community. We had the opportunity to socialize at the sausage sizzle, strengthening our bonds and enjoying each other's company.

I extend my heartfelt gratitude to all who participated in this liturgical event. A special thank you to our children, especially those from the Sacramental program, who will be receiving Our Lord for the first time this Sunday, June 9, and June 16. Your presence and participation made this event even more special.

Many thanks to the parishioners who looked after the logistics, marshals and traffic officers supervising safety along the streets. Your dedication and hard work ensured the smooth running of the event. Thanks to those parishioners who set up the altar and worked on Friday and Saturday to set up everything for Sunday. Your efforts did not go unnoticed. I thank the youth for looking after the sausage sizzle and the social part of this joyous day. Your enthusiasm and energy added a vibrant touch to the event. Thank you to our school leadership for helping us to organise this faith and community celebration. Your support was invaluable. I especially thank Mr Kurt Dutney for his generous assistance in preparing the school grounds for the benediction on the social part. Your contribution was crucial to the success of the event.

The school sang after Communion a beautiful hymn which introduced us to the Corpus Christ Procession. Your beautiful hymn set the tone for the procession. Thank you, and God bless. Fr Jan

Feast of St Anthony will be celebrated at the 9am Mass Saturday morning 15th June.
Followed by special devotions.

Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B

First Reading

Genesis 3:9-15

A reading from the book of Genesis

I will make you enemies of each other: your offspring and her offspring.

The Lord God called to the man after he had eaten of the tree. 'Where are you?' he asked. 'I heard the sound of you in the garden;' he replied 'I was afraid because I was naked, so I hid.' 'Who told you that you were naked?' he asked. 'Have you been eating of the tree I forbade you to eat?' The man replied, 'It was the woman you put with me; she gave me the fruit, and I ate it.' Then the Lord God asked the woman, 'What is this you have done?' The woman replied, 'The serpent tempted me and I ate.'

Then the Lord God said to the serpent, 'Because you have done this,

'Be accursed beyond all cattle,
all wild beasts.
You shall crawl on your belly and eat dust
every day of your life.
I will make you enemies of each other:
you and the woman,
your offspring and her offspring.
It will crush your head
and you will strike its heel.'

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 129. R. v.7

With the Lord there is mercy
and fullness of redemption.

1. Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord,
Lord, hear my voice!
O let your ears be attentive
to the voice of my pleading. (R.)
2. If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt,
Lord, who would survive?
But with you is found forgiveness:
for this we revere you. (R.)
3. My soul is waiting for the Lord,
I count on his word.
My soul is longing for the Lord
more than watchman for daybreak. (R.)
4. Because with the Lord there is mercy,
and fullness of redemption,
Israel indeed he will redeem
from all its iniquity. (R.)

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 4:13-5:1

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

We believe, and therefore we speak.

As we have the same spirit of faith that is mentioned in scripture – I believed, therefore I spoke - we too believe and therefore we too speak, knowing that he who raised the Lord Jesus to life will raise us with Jesus in our turn, and put us by his side and you with us. You see, all this is for your benefit, so that the more grace is multiplied among people, the more thanksgiving there will be, to the glory of God.

That is why there is no weakening on our part, and instead, though this outer man of ours may be falling into decay, the inner man is renewed day by day. Yes, the troubles which are soon over, though they weigh little, train us for the carrying of a weight of eternal glory which is out of all proportion to them. And so we have no eyes for things that are visible, but only for things that are invisible; for visible things last only for a time, and the invisible things are eternal.

For we know that when the tent that we live in on earth is folded up, there is a house built by God for us, an everlasting home not made by human hands, in the heavens.

Gospel Acclamation

John 12:31. 32

Alleluia, alleluia!

The prince of this world will now be cast out,
and when I am lifted up from the earth
I will draw all to myself, says the Lord.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 3:20-35

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

It is the end of Satan.

Jesus went home with his disciples, and such a crowd collected that they could not even have a meal. When his relatives heard of this, they set out to take charge of him, convinced he was out of his mind.

The scribes who had come down from Jerusalem were saying, 'Beelzebul is in him,' and, 'It is through the prince of devils that he casts devils out.' So he called them to him and spoke to them in parables, 'How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot last. And if a household is divided against itself, that household can never stand. Now if Satan has rebelled against himself and is divided, he cannot stand either - it is the end of him. But no one can make his way into a strong man's house and burgle his property unless he has tied up the strong man first. Only then can he burgle his house.

'I tell you solemnly, all men's sins will be forgiven, and all their blasphemies; but let anyone blaspheme against the Holy Spirit and he will never have forgiveness: he is guilty of an eternal sin.' This was because they were saying, 'An unclean spirit is in him.'

His mother and brothers now arrived and, standing outside, sent in a message asking for him. A crowd was sitting round him at the time the message was passed to him, 'Your mother and brothers and sisters are outside asking for you.' He replied, 'Who are my mother and my brothers?' And looking round at those sitting in a circle about him, he said, 'Here are my mother and my brothers. Anyone who does the will of God, that person is my brother and sister and mother.'
