17th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 28 JULY 2024 YEAR B

Today, we are reminded of God's providence. We live in a world that feeds us and shelters us and supplies us with everything that we need to grow and thrive, and all of this comes to us from the hand of God. It is usually when we are in desperate straits that we become painfully conscious of our dependence on God, but this dependence is always there. God does not merely intervene when we are helpless; God's providence operates in our lives at all times.

Living in a society that often glorifies individualism, we tend to overlook the divine design of communal life. While God certainly cares deeply for each of us (not even a sparrow falls without God knowing it), His concern is for the entire community. We are, at our core, members of a people. Our existence, growth, and endurance are all intertwined with others. Despite our uniqueness, we are a unique expression of a communal reality. God created a race; God formed a people; Jesus died for the world. By God's grace, we are part of this divine community.

As members of the people of God, we are called to a way of life that is noble, not selfish. We are to live with each other in humility and gentleness, with patience. We are to bear with one another in love. Through baptism, we all live by the same Spirit of Jesus; we are all united through the bond of God's love.

The Bread that we receive from the hand of God is the Bread of full life, life in all its dimensions, life in Christ.

Adoration is one of the most beautiful ways to spend time in prayer. Last Wednesday and Thursday at Our Lady of the Sacred Heart Church parishioners had an opportunity to pray, reflect, and adore Our Lord present in the Blessed Sacrament.

Many visits were paid at different times throughout the day, evening, night, and early morning. Indeed, these 24 hours were a blessed time for our parish. I am sure that many graces have come upon us from this time of adoration and prayer.

I thank parishioners who dedicated their time to adore the Lord and pray before the Blessed Sacrament. Many stayed late into the night, while others arrived at the Church early in the morning.

Your commitment and devotion is truly inspiring. I'd like to express a special thank you to the students and teachers of OLSH school who participated in the devotion. Apart from the prep class, all students came to church and said "hello" to Jesus. Although the visits were not that long, the children behaved with reverence and respect. I thank Mrs Nikki Lysaght for coordinating and preparing the school for this time of prayer and meditation.

FOUND INTERGENERATIONAL RETREAT

On Friday 13 September - Sunday 15 September we will be holding our third Intergenerational Youth Led Retreat where we will have ministry leaders supporting us in facilitating this retreat experience at Tunnel Ridge Ranch, Sunshine Coast.

The theme of this year's retreat is focused on the Prodigal Son (Luke 15:32). Being FOUND and coming to new life by returning to the Father.

You often hear in Sacred scripture that Jesus retreated often to spend time with His Father in prayer to give him the spiritual sustenance to carry out His ministry. We felt it was very important that this retreat was made available to children, youth, young adults and all parishioners.

There are 100 spots available costing $100. Your generous donations at the last two youth fundraisers has raised $2000 to reduce the amount from the initial cost $165 which includes catering and accommodation. The cost of the retreat is $15,800 including the cost of the bus.

Please register to

REGISTRATIONS CLOSE ON FRIDAY 16 AUGUST AT 5PM.

Please direct all enquiries to Luisa at ym.darjin@bne.catholic.net.au

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B

First Reading 2 Kings 4:42-44

A man came from Baal-shalishah, bringing Elisha, the man of God, bread from the first-fruits, twenty barley loaves and fresh grain in the ear. 'Give it to the people to eat,' Elisha said. But his servant replied, 'How can I serve this to a hundred men?' 'Give it to the people to eat' he insisted 'for the Lord says this, "They will eat and have some left over."' He served them; they ate and had some over, as the Lord had said.

Responsorial Psalm 144

Response: The hand of the Lord feeds us;
he answers all our needs.

1. All your creatures shall thank you, O Lord,
and your friends shall repeat their blessing.
They shall speak of the glory of your reign
and declare your might, O God. (R.)
2. The eyes of all creatures look to you and you give them their food in due time.
You open wide your hand,
grant the desires of all who live. (R.)
3. The Lord is just in all his ways and loving in all his deeds.
He is close to all who call him,
who call on him from their hearts. (R.)

Second Reading

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians 4:1-6

I, the prisoner in the Lord, implore you to lead a life worthy of your vocation. Bear with one another charitably, in complete selflessness, gentleness and patience. Do all you can to preserve the unity of the Spirit by the peace that binds you together. There is one Body, one Spirit, just as you were all called into one and the same hope when you were called. There is one Lord, one faith, one baptism, and one God who is Father of all, through all and within all.

Gospel Acclamation

Luke 7:16

Alleluia, alleluia!

A great prophet has appeared among us;
God has visited his people.

Alleluia!

Gospel

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John 6:1-15

Jesus went off to the other side of the Sea of Galilee – or of Tiberias – and a large crowd followed him, impressed by the signs he gave by curing the sick. Jesus climbed the hillside, and sat down there with his disciples. It was shortly before the Jewish feast of Passover.

Looking up, Jesus saw the crowds approaching and said to Philip, 'Where can we buy some bread for these people to eat?' He only said this to test Philip; he himself knew exactly what he was going to do. Philip answered, 'Two hundred denarii would only buy enough to give them a small piece each.' One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said, 'There is a small boy here with five barley loaves and two fish; but what is that between so many?' Jesus said to them, 'Make the people sit down.' There was plenty of grass there, and as many as five thousand men sat down. Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks and gave them out to all who were sitting ready; he then did the same with the fish, giving out as much as was wanted. When they had eaten enough he said to the disciples, 'Pick up the pieces left over, so that nothing gets wasted.' So they picked them up, and filled twelve hampers with scraps left over from the meal of five barley loaves. The people, seeing this sign that he had given, said, 'This really is the prophet who is to come into the world.' Jesus, who could see they were about to come and take him by force and make him king, escaped back to the hills by himself.
