18th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

4th August 2024 YEAR B

Who can satisfy human appetites?

Some religions, and even tendencies appearing occasionally in Catholicism, try to suppress appetites to achieve some 'out-of-this-world' liberation. But appetites are good things, telling us what we humans need as bodily, social, and spiritual beings. They provide a reality check against our inclination to think that salvation is exclusively about the soul.

Our appetites for food and drink, affection and companionship, and the truth about the Big Picture of our life journey must be satisfied, or we disintegrate in various ways.

Our Lord Jesus Christ proclaims in today's Gospel that He is the total satisfaction of our deepest human appetites: 'I am the Bread from Heaven which gives life to the world.'

That 'Life' is nothing less than participation in Divine Life, existing in the Big Picture in the way God intended. That is the nourishment offered not to a particular tribe or ethnic group but to the whole of humanity, indeed to the whole of creation.

Let us pause to pray for the faith to recognise the profound transformation that takes place during the Offertory at the Eucharist. The bread, once a mere sustenance like the manna in the desert, is now 'the Bread of Life', the Real Presence of the One, our Lord Jesus Christ, who nourishes humanity and, indeed, who gives Life to the world.

Workshop – Special (Extraordinary) Ministers of the Eucharist

A workshop for the Special Ministers of Eucharist who do their ministry in our Parish will be held at The Twelve Apostles Church, Jindalee, on Saturday, August 10, at 10.30 am. For those unable to come on that day, there will be an additional option OLSH, Darra on Saturday August 24, at 10.30 am.

The workshop presents a unique opportunity for growth and learning. Its purpose is to review our practices in light of the Liturgical norms and guidelines, encouraging us to see what can be changed to enhance our ministry.

As the Holy Eucharist is at the heart of any parish's liturgical life, all Eucharist ministers must show reverence, dignity and elegance, highlighting the Real Presence of the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

FOUND INTERGENERATIONAL RETREAT

On Friday 13 September - Sunday 15 September we will be holding our third Intergenerational Youth Led Retreat where we will have ministry leaders supporting us in facilitating this retreat experience at Tunnel Ridge Ranch, Sunshine Coast.

The theme of this year's retreat is focused on the Prodigal Son (Luke 15:32). Being FOUND and coming to new life by returning to the Father.

You often hear in Sacred scripture that Jesus retreated often to spend time with His Father in prayer to give him the spiritual sustenance to carry out His ministry. We felt it was very important that this retreat was made available to children, youth, young adults and all parishioners.

There are 100 spots available costing $100. Your generous donations at the last two youth fundraisers has raised $2000 to reduce the amount from the initial cost $165 which includes catering and accommodation. The cost of the retreat is $15,800 including the cost of the bus. Please register to <https://darrajindaleecatholicparish.org.au/registration/> REGISTRATIONS CLOSE ON FRIDAY 16 AUGUST AT 5PM. Please direct all enquiries to Luisa at ym.darjin@bne.catholic.net.au

Sunday 4th of August 2024

Eighteen Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B

First Reading

A reading from the book of Exodus 16:2-4. 12-15

I will rain bread from heaven upon you.

The whole community of the sons of Israel began to complain against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness and said to them, 'Why did we not die at the Lord's hand in the land of Egypt, when we were able to sit down to pans of meat and could eat bread to our hearts content! As it is, you have brought us to this wilderness to starve this whole company to death!'

Then the Lord said to Moses, 'Now I will rain down bread for you from the heavens. Each day the people are to go out and gather the day's portion; I propose to test them this way to see whether they will follow my law or not.'

'I have heard the complaints of the sons of Israel. Say this to them, "Between the two evenings you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall have bread to your hearts content. Then you will learn that I, the Lord, am your God.'" And so it came about: quails flew up in the evening, and they covered the camp; in the morning there was a coating of dew all round the camp. When the coating of dew lifted, there on the surface of the desert was a thing delicate, powdery, as fine as hoarfrost on the ground. When they saw this, the sons of Israel said to one another, 'What is that?' not knowing what it was. 'That' said Moses to them 'is the bread the Lord gives you to eat.'

Responsorial Psalm Ps 77

Response: The Lord gave them bread from heaven.

1. The things we have heard and understood, the things our fathers have told us, we will tell to the next generation: the glories of the Lord and his might. (R.)
2. He commanded the clouds above and opened the gates of heaven. He rained down manna for their food, and gave them bread from heaven. (R.)
3. Mere men ate the bread of angels. He sent them abundance of food. He brought them to his holy land, to the mountain which his right hand had won. (R.)

Second Reading

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians 4:17, 20-24

Put on the new person that has been created in God's image.

I want to urge you in the name of the Lord, not to go on living the aimless kind of life that pagans live. Now that is hardly the way you have learnt from Christ, unless you failed to hear him properly when you were taught what the truth is in Jesus. You must give up your old way of life; you must put aside your old self, which gets corrupted by following illusory desires. Your mind must be renewed by a spiritual revolution so that you can put on the new self that has been created in God's way, in the goodness and holiness of the truth.

Gospel Acclamation Mat 4:4

Alleluia, alleluia!

No one lives on bread alone,
but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.

Alleluia!

Gospel

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John 6:24-35

Whoever comes to me will never be hungry; whoever believes in me will never thirst.

When the people saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they got into boats and crossed to Capernaum to look for Jesus. When they found him on the other side, they said to him, 'Rabbi, when did you come here?' Jesus answered:

'I tell you most solemnly, you are not looking for me because you have seen the signs but because you had all the bread you wanted to eat.

Do not work for food that cannot last, but work for food that endures to eternal life, the kind of food the Son of Man is offering you, for on him the Father, God himself, has set his seal.'

Then they said to him, 'What must we do if we are to do the works that God wants?' Jesus gave them this answer, 'This is working for God: you must believe in the one he has sent.' So they said, 'What sign will you give to show us that we should believe in you? What work will you do? Our fathers had manna to eat in the desert; as scripture says: He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'

Jesus answered:

'I tell you most solemnly, it was not Moses who gave you bread from heaven, it is my Father who gives you the bread from heaven, the true bread; for the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.'

'Sir,' they said 'give us that bread always.' Jesus answered:

'I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will never be hungry; he who believes in me will never thirst.'
