19th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 11th August 2024 YEAR B

A few years ago, one of the TV channels screened a show called VITAMANIA. According to the producers, the vitamin industry is worth 100 billion dollars worldwide. It is estimated that over 85,000 vitamin products and dietary supplements are on the market. We are told that these products will improve memory, reduce cholesterol levels, slow aging, improve heart health, promote more restful sleep, and so on. Suppose a company would advertise a supplement with a headline: "Take our supplement, and you will live forever". This claim would be met with scepticism and disbelief.

In today's Gospel, Jesus offers his listeners the Living Bread that came down from heaven; he says, "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever." Just as the Jewish people were given manna as nourishment on their way to the Promised Land, we may think of the Eucharist as the "manna" that we are given to strengthen us for our journey to heaven.

However, the Eucharist is not only something that we are given to fortify our souls; instead, the Eucharist is someone. The Eucharist is our encounter with the Risen Lord who is truly present — body, blood, soul and divinity — in the consecrated Host and Precious Wine we are privileged to receive.

As we receive Holy Communion, the Risen Lord stands before us and says, "Take and eat; this is my body; take and drink; this is my blood." and we become a holy communion with him and our brothers and sisters who in procession go up to the altar at the communion time. Fr Jan

THANK YOU

The last Monday, August 5, marked the 3rd anniversary of Fr Dan's departure from this life. We honoured Fr Dan and his 50 years of dedicated service as Parish Priest to Darra Jindalee by celebrating the anniversary Mass at Twelve Apostle Church. I thank all parishioners who attended this Mass and stayed afterwards to share the light supper with a few drinks. I thank the priests who joined us in celebrating Mass that evening. I also thank the ladies who prepared floral arrangements to highlight the solemn occasion. The church looked beautiful, and the flowers will be kept until Sunday, August 11. After the prayer at Mass, parishioners moved to the parish hall to share memories of Fr. Dan's time in Darra Jindalee. I thank all the parishioners who prepared and donated the food to share, including platters, pumpkin soup, spring rolls, and other goodies. Many ladies stayed behind and helped clean up to ensure the kitchen was tidy.

First Reading

A reading from the first book of Kings 19:4-8

Strengthened by the food, he walked to the mountain of the Lord.

Elijah went into the wilderness, a day's journey, and sitting under a furze bush wished he were dead. 'Lord', he said 'I have had enough. Take my life: I am no better than my ancestors.' Then he lay down and went to sleep. But an angel touched him and said, 'Get up and eat.' He looked round, and there at his head was a scone baked on hot stones, and a jar of water. He ate and drank and then lay down again. But the angel of the Lord came back a second time and touched him and said, 'Get up and eat, or the journey will be too long for you.' So he got up and ate and drank, and strengthened by that food he walked for forty days and forty nights until he reached Horeb, the mountain of God.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 33:

Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

1. I will bless the Lord at all times,
his praise always on my lips;
in the Lord my soul shall make its boast.
The humble shall hear and be glad. (R.)

2. Glorify the Lord with me.
Together let us praise his name.
I sought the Lord and he answered me;
from all my terrors he set me free. (R.)

3. Look towards him and be radiant;
let your faces not be abashed.
This poor man called; the Lord heard him and rescued him from all his distress. (R.)

4. The angel of the Lord is encamped around those who revere him, to rescue them.
Taste and see that the Lord is good.
He is happy who seeks refuge in him. (R.)

Second Reading

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians 4:30 – 5:2

Walk in love, just as Christ.

Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God who has marked you with his seal for you to be set free when the day comes. Never have grudges against others, or lose your temper, or raise your voice to anybody, or call each other names, or allow any sort of spitefulness. Be friends with one another, and kind, forgiving each other as readily as God forgave you in Christ.

Try, then, to imitate God, as children of his that he loves, and follow Christ by loving as he loved you, giving himself up in our place as a fragrant offering and a sacrifice to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord;
whoever eats this bread will live for ever.

Alleluia!

Gospel

A reading from the gospel according to John 6:41-51

I am the living bread come down from heaven.

The Jews were complaining to each other about Jesus, because he had said, 'I am the bread that came down from heaven.' 'Surely this is Jesus son of Joseph' they said. 'We know his father and mother. How can he now say, "I have come down from heaven"?' Jesus said in reply, 'Stop complaining to each other.

'No one can come to me
unless he is drawn by the Father who sent me,
and I will raise him up at the last day.

It is written in the prophets:
They will all be taught by God,
and to hear the teaching of the Father,
and learn from it,
is to come to me.

Not that anybody has seen the Father,
except the one who comes from God:
he has seen the Father.

I tell you most solemnly,
everybody who believes has eternal life.
I am the bread of life.

Your fathers ate the manna in the desert
and they are dead;

but this is the bread that comes down from heaven,
so that a man may eat it and not die.

I am the living bread which has come down from heaven.

Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever;
and the bread that I shall give is my flesh, for the life of the world.'
