Holiness: Contagion, not Quarantine

Many religious leaders have thought that some foods or people are such a threat to the holiness of their followers that contact with 'unclean' or 'defiling' foods or people must be avoided. Our Lord was totally opposed to the idea that holiness was something secured or gained by being quarantined or separated from anything or anyone.

On the contrary, he could touch a leper or have a meal with a prostitute. Rather than defilement flowing from the leper or prostitute to Jesus, his life poured into them, repairing their broken humanity, healing their body and minds holistically, and making them holy.

The fact is that God, embodied in Jesus Christ, is contagious. The contagion of Divine Life is meant to flow into the inner depths of personality, into the heart. When this occurs, the Divine Life in the human person causes 'holiness'.

We become holy when we allow ourselves to be touched by our Lord Jesus Christ. How do we do this?

Hearing of His life in the Gospel, nourished by His life in Holy Communion, and touched by the plight of those in whom He is to be found. St James, in the second reading, describes some who are particularly vulnerable in a patriarchal society with no social security system: the widows and orphans. No doubt, we can identify equivalent groups in our own society and overseas.

We could take a moment to pray that we might be more conscious of the Holy Spirit germinating something in our hearts, making us holy from the inside out. We want our holiness to be authenticated by good works so that we may be holy as the Lord our God is holy. Fr Michael Tate

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

Loving Father, in Your wisdom and love,
You made all things. Bless all Fathers, Grandfathers, Spiritual Fathers and those who are Father role models, that they may be strengthened as Christian Fathers. Let the example of their faith and love shine forth.
Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honour them always with a spirit of profound love and appreciation. Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

New sets of planned giving envelopes are still available for collection. Many parishioners have collected their new set; thanks for taking your box. However, a few boxes haven't been collected. If you contribute to the parish collection this way, please check if your box is on the table at the back of our church.

The new tapping unit has been set up in Jindalee church. This new unit operates in a 4G system. The existing tap units operated with the 3 G system, will no longer be available at the end of October. By the end of October, all the 4 G units will be installed in Jindalee and Darra. The new machine has four options. Parishioners can choose from $5 $10 $20 and $40.

Many thanks, and God Bless Fr Jan

THANK YOU. The parishioners who park their vehicles in the upper car part at Jindalee may have noticed the refreshed signs in the ground. I thank Michael Matthews for spending many hours repainting these signs and making them visible, especially at night and in bad weather conditions.

Also, all the lights in the upper car park have been replaced, and now they are working. These lights are brighter and more energy efficient. I hope the better illumination and the refreshed signs will improve the safety and visibility of this part of the car park at Jindalee.

After the recent workshops for the monitors of Holy Communion, one of the Eucharistic ministers has suggested printing extra copies of the prayers of the faithful used at our Sunday Mass. The ministers who bring Holy Communion to the sick can take these extra copies and use them when they visit those who cannot be with us at Mass. I think it is a great idea, and I encourage our Eucharistic ministers to take one of these copies, which you can find in the sacristy in a folder. The folder is marked with a note: "Prayers of the faithful for the Eucharistic ministers."

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B

First Reading

A reading from the book of Deuteronomy 4:1-2. 6-8

Moses said to the people: 'Now, Israel, take notice of the laws and customs that I teach you today, and observe them, that you may have life and may enter and take possession of the land that the Lord the God of your fathers is giving you. You must add nothing to what I command you, and take nothing from it, but keep the commandments of the Lord your God just as I lay them down for you. Keep them, observe them, and they will demonstrate to the peoples your wisdom and understanding. When they come to know of all these laws they will exclaim, "No other people is as wise and prudent as this great nation." And indeed, what great nation is there that has its gods so near as the Lord our God is to us whenever we call to him? And what great nation is there that has laws and customs to match this whole Law that I put before you today?'

Responsorial Psalm 14:2-5. R. v.1

(R.) The just will live in the presence of the Lord.

1. Lord, who shall dwell on your holy mountain?
He who walks without fault;
he who acts with justice
and speaks the truth from his heart. (R.)
2. He who does no wrong to his brother, who casts no slur on his neighbour,
who holds the godless in disdain,
but honours those who fear the Lord. (R.)
3. He who keeps his pledge, come what may;
who takes no interest on a loan
and accepts no bribes against the innocent.
Such a man will stand firm for ever. (R.)

Second Reading

A reading from the letter of St James 1:17-18, 21-22, 27

It is all that is good, everything that is perfect, which is given us from above; it comes down from the Father of all light; with him there is no such thing as alteration, no shadow of a change. By his own choice he made us his children by the message of the truth so that we should be a sort of first-fruits of all that he had created.

Accept and submit to the word which has been planted in you and can save your souls. But you must do what the word tells you, and not just listen to it and deceive yourselves.

Pure, unspoilt religion, in the eyes of God our Father is this: coming to the help of orphans and widows when they need it, and keeping oneself uncontaminated by the world.

Gospel Acclamation James 1:18

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Father gave us birth by his message of truth,
that we might be as the first fruits of his creation.

Alleluia!

Gospel

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark 7:1-8. 14-15. 21-23

The Pharisees and some of the scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered round Jesus, and they noticed that some of his disciples were eating with unclean hands, that is, without washing them. For the Pharisees, and the Jews in general, follow the tradition of the elders and never eat without washing their arms as far as the elbow; and on returning from the market place they never eat without first sprinkling themselves. There are also many other observances which have been handed down to them concerning the washing of cups and pots and bronze dishes. So these Pharisees and scribes asked him, 'Why do your disciples not respect the tradition of the elders but eat their food with unclean hands?' He answered, 'It was of you hypocrites that Isaiah so rightly prophesied in this passage of scripture:

This people honours me only with lip-service,
while their hearts are far from me.

The worship they offer me is worthless,
the doctrines they teach are only human regulations.

You put aside the commandment of God to cling to human traditions.'

He called the people to him again and said, 'Listen to me, all of you, and understand. Nothing that goes into a man from outside can make him unclean; it is the things that come out of a man that make him unclean. For it is from within, from men's hearts, that evil intentions emerge: fornication, theft, murder, adultery, avarice, malice, deceit, indecency, envy, slander, pride, folly. All these evil things come from within and make a man unclean.'
