30th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 27 October 2024 YEAR B

Bartimaeus, like any other blind beggar in Palestine, was at the mercy of others. In these circumstances, he had to be tenacious and firm. He couldn't afford silence as others asked him. "Many of them scolded him and told him to keep quiet, but he only shouted all the louder, 'Son of David, have pity on me.'" Bartimaeus couldn't stop calling for attention. Many chased or kicked him away, but he wouldn't give up because he wanted to be noticed. Therefore, when he heard about Jesus passing by – he shouted even louder. Shouting louder, Bartimaeus lets everyone around him know about his helplessness. This call for desperate help was also probably a painful feeling of humiliation, but he was prepared to face any shame to be healed.

Listening to this story, we can learn two things. Firstly, Bartimaeus relentlessly cries to God; he cries to Jesus, "Son of David, Jesus, have pity on me." This simple and sincere plea is exemplary prayer, and it has found its way into the tradition of Christian prayer.

Secondly, Bartimaeus overcomes his shame of being a beggar. Interestingly, shame and silence accompanied Adam when he ate the fruit from the forbidden tree. Aware of his nakedness, Adam hid himself and remained silent when God called to him, "Where are you?" Adam and Eve tried to conceal themselves from God because of their shame.

This Sunday's story teaches us to approach God with the same confidence as Bartimaeus. We should not be afraid to present our lives to Him, even when they are sometimes marked by humiliation and shame of sin. The confidence in God's love and mercy heals our blindness and brings us to God's kingdom of light.

God's grace be with you - Fr Jan.

Know his will and grow in grace.

Sunday 27 Oct 2024

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B

First Reading

A reading from the prophet Jeremiah 31:7-9

The Lord says this:

Shout with joy for Jacob!
Hail the chief of nations!
Proclaim! Praise! Shout:
The Lord has saved his people,
the remnant of Israel!
See, I will bring them back from the land of the North and gather them from the far ends of earth;
all of them: the blind and the lame,
women with child, women in labour:
a great company returning here.
They had left in tears,
I will comfort them as I lead them back;
I will guide them to streams of water,
by a smooth path where they will not stumble.
For I am a father to Israel,
and Ephraim is my first-born son.

Responsorial Psalm 125. R. v.3

(R.) The Lord has done great things for us;
we are filled with joy.

1. When the Lord delivered Zion from bondage,
It seemed like a dream.
Then was our mouth filled with laughter,
on our lips there were songs. (R.)
2. The heathens themselves said: 'What marvels
the Lord worked for them!'
What marvels the Lord worked for us!
Indeed we were glad. (R.)
3. Deliver us, O Lord, from our bondage
as streams in dry land.
Those who are sowing in tears
will sing when they reap. (R.)
4. They go out, they go out, full of tears, carrying seed for the sowing:
they come back, they come back, full of song,
carrying their sheaves. (R.)

Second Reading

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews 5:1-6

Every high priest has been taken out of mankind and is appointed to act for men in their relations with God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins; and so he can sympathise with those who are ignorant or uncertain because he too lives in the limitations of weakness. That is why he has to make sin offerings for himself as well as for the people. No one takes this honour on himself, but each one is called by God, as Aaron was. Nor did Christ give himself the glory of becoming high priest, but he had it from the one who said to him: You are my son, today I have become your father, and in another text: You are a priest of the order of Melchizedek, and for ever.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Our Saviour Jesus Christ has done away with death,
and brought us life through his gospel.

Alleluia!

Gospel

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark 10:46-52

As Jesus left Jericho with his disciples and a large crowd, Bartimaeus (that is, the son of Timaeus), a blind beggar, was sitting at the side of the road. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout and to say, 'Son of David, Jesus, have pity on me.' And many of them scolded him and told him to keep quiet, but he only shouted all the louder, 'Son of David, have pity on me.' Jesus stopped and said, 'Call him here.' So they called the blind man. 'Courage,' they said 'get up; he is calling you.' So throwing off his cloak, he jumped up and went to Jesus. Then Jesus spoke, 'What do you want me to do for you?' 'Rabbuni,' the blind man said to him 'Master, let me see again.' Jesus said to him, 'Go; your faith has saved you.' And immediately his sight returned and he followed him along the road.
