THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

15th June 2025 Year C

The feast of the Holy Trinity is different from other feasts of the liturgical year, such as Christmas, Epiphany, Easter, and Pentecost, when we celebrate the wondrous works of God in history: the Incarnation, the Resurrection, the Descent of the Holy Spirit, and consequently the birth of the Church. Today, we are not celebrating an event in which "something" of God is made visible; instead, we are celebrating the very mystery of God.

Our faith teaches us that God is One and Three. This is not a mere theological concept but a profound truth. It reveals that God is not a solitary being, but an eternal love based on the reciprocity of the Persons. This trinitarian unity, born out of love, is far more profound than any unity we can comprehend in our human experience.

The most beautiful artistic depiction of this mystery was left to us by Andrei Rublev (XVc)—the world-renowned icon of the Holy Trinity. The icon does not portray the eternal mystery of God in himself. It attempts to represent this mystery as recorded in the book of Genesis. The visit of the three men to Abraham by the oaks of Mamre (Gen 18:1-33). Abraham immediately recognised that they were not just like any other men, but that God himself was coming to him through them.

Looking at this icon, we are near the oaks of Mamre, which Rublev depicts in stylized form as a single tree representing the tree of life. This tree of life is none other than the Trinitarian love that created the world, sustains it, saves it, and is the source of all life. We also see the tent, the dwelling of Abraham, which recalls the Prologue of John's Gospel read at Christmas: "And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us" (Jn 1:14).

Blessings Fr Jan

Last Monday, after a three-week break, I returned to my regular routine in parish life. I am grateful for all your prayers and positive thoughts during my time off.

During my absence, Fr. Elie Francis, Fr. Patrick Richards, Fr. Paul Goodland, Fr. Chris Hanlon, Fr. Mark Huong, Fr. John Truc, Fr. Wilbard, and Fr. Pancras Jordan took care of the Eucharist and other pastoral ministries. Thanks to their efforts, the sacramental life of Darra Jindalee continued uninterrupted. I am very grateful to them for their support these past few weeks and their assistance whenever needed.

I also want to thank all the parishioners and office staff for making the visiting priests feel at home and ensuring that everything was prepared for the Eucharist. Once again, thank you all. After my break, I am happy to be back and travel with you as we face the second half of 2025.

Fr. Jan

Next Sunday 22 June, we will celebrate the Feast of Corpus Christi, also known as the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, In the Catholic tradition, the Eucharistic Procession is a significant part of the Corpus Christi feast. It serves as a public demonstration of our belief in the real presence of our Lord in the Holy Eucharist.

In our parish, we will express our belief in the real presence of our Lord in the Holy Eucharist at Darra after the 9 AM Mass, Sunday, June 22. After the Mass, we will process along Darra Station Road, turning right onto Lee Street and again onto Scott Street. The procession will conclude at the school grounds (the undercover area), where we will have a benediction followed by morning tea and refreshments. I encourage all parishioners to join us and walk together with the Lord through the local streets of our parish.

The Most Holy Trinity Year C

First Reading

A reading from the book of Proverbs 8:22-31

The Wisdom of God cries aloud:
The Lord created me when his purpose first unfolded,
before the oldest of his works.
From everlasting I was firmly set,
from the beginning, before earth came into being.
The deep was not, when I was born,
there were no springs to gush with water.
Before the mountains were settled,
before the hills, I came to birth;
before he made the earth, the countryside,
or the first grains of the world's dust.
When he fixed the heavens firm, I was there,
when he drew a ring on the surface of the deep,
when he thickened the clouds above,
when he fixed fast the springs of the deep,
when he assigned the sea its boundaries
– and the waters will not invade the shore –
when he laid down the foundations of the earth,
I was by his side, a master craftsman,
delighting him day after day,
ever at play in his presence,
at play everywhere in his world,
delighting to be with the sons of men.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 8:4-9.

(R.) O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!

1. When I see the heavens, the work of your hands,
the moon and the stars which you arranged,
what is man that you should keep him in mind,
mortal man that you care for him? (R.)

2. Yet you have made him little less than a god;
with glory and honour you crowned him,
gave him power over the works of your hand,
put all things under his feet. (R.)

3. All of them, sheep and cattle,
yes, even the savage beasts,
birds of the air, and fish
that make their way through the waters. (R.)

Second Reading

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, by faith we are judged righteous and at peace with God, since it is by faith and through Jesus that we have entered this state of grace in which we can boast about looking forward to God's glory. But that is not all we can boast about; we can boast about our sufferings. These sufferings bring patience, as we know, and patience brings perseverance, and perseverance brings hope, and this hope is not deceptive, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit which has been given us.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit:
to God who is, who was, and who is to come.
Alleluia!

Gospel

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples:

'I still have many things to say to you
but they would be too much for you now.
But when the Spirit of truth comes
he will lead you to the complete truth,
since he will not be speaking as from himself
but will say only what he has learnt;
and he will tell you of the things to come.
He will glorify me,
since all he tells you
will be taken from what is mine.
Everything the Father has is mine;
that is why I said:
All he tells you
will be taken from what is mine.'
