11TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME SUNDAY 14TH JUNE 2026

As you go, proclaim the good news, 'The kingdom of heaven has come near.'

Matthew 10:7

The major themes today are call and discipleship. Most of us are rather insignificant in the eyes of the broader society. And even those who are well known or in some way famous are still just simple human beings with needs and fears and dreams like the rest of us. Yet we have been called by God. This is what makes us special. Paul picks up this theme in his development of justification. He argues that we are special because when we were still sinners we were justified. All this has come to us as a pure gift from God. It is God who calls; it is God who chooses; it is God who justifies. If we are to boast, we must boast in God.

Paul further teaches that good works do not gain faith. It is the other way around. It is faith that manifests itself in works. In the gospel we see that the disciples are sent out to give to others the gift of faith which had been given to them. They proclaim the gospel, the good news that the time of fulfilment has come, and then they perform mighty works that demonstrate what they preach. We too have been called to discipleship; we have been made God's special people. To us has been entrusted the good news of salvation to proclaim to others. We must be the healing touch of Christ in our world. We must comfort those who mourn, bring back to life those who are in despair, embrace those who have been ostracised by society, drive out anger and fear and hatred.

St Carlo Acutis Major Pilgrim Relic-
His Pericardium

Sunday 5th July

Jindalee Hall 9am—5:30pm
Talk, Veneration,
Eucharistic Miracles

First-class Relic of Saint Carlo Acutis will visit Darra-Jindalee on Sunday the 6th of July. The relic is a fragment of the membrane surrounding his heart. St. Carlo was an Italian boy, born in London, who strove for holiness in his ordinary life in Milan before dying from Leukaemia at the age of 15. He used his skills in computer programming, as well as his friendships, to spread the Gospel message. He is a great model for all of us, especially young people.

The relic will be accompanied by Monsignor Anthony Figueiredo from Assisi. Monsignor Figueiredo is responsible for bringing St. Carlo’s Pericardium Heart Relic to different nations and speaking first hand about this inspiring millennial.

Urgently needed Cleaners for Jindalee.
Please call the parish office.

Last Sunday, after the 9 a.m. Mass, we joined together for the Corpus Christi Procession, a public celebration of our faith in Jesus' Real Presence in the Blessed Sacrament.

We were blessed with a beautiful blue sky and pleasant temperature. It wasn't just a time for worship but also a wonderful chance for us to come together as a community. After the benediction, we happily took the opportunity to socialise over morning tea, where we enjoyed an array of delicious goodies donated by one of the bakery of our parishioner Uyen of Van Dough Bakery, — a heartfelt BIG THANK YOU FOR SUCH GENEROSITY!

I sincerely thank everyone who took part in this liturgical event. Special appreciation goes to our children of the Sacramental program, who will receive Our Lord for the first time this Sunday, June 14, and June 21. Your participation and support made this event truly special.

I also want to thank the parishioners who managed logistics, the marshals, the ladies from the Sacramental Program, and the traffic officers who ensured safety along the streets. Your dedication and hard work were essential to the smooth running of the event. Additionally, I appreciate the parishioners who set up the altar and prepared everything for Sunday’s celebration. I thank Peter Condon for setting up the portable sound system, which helped us sing as we walked along the streets. It was a significant improvement on what we had last year.

Thanks to the youth for managing morning tea and social activities on this joyful day. Appreciation to school leadership for helping organize this faith and community celebration; your support was invaluable. Special thanks to Mr. Kurt Dutney for his help in preparing the grounds for the benediction.

Thank you, and God bless. Fr Jan

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A

A reading from the book of Exodus 19:2-6

From Rephidim the Israelites set out again; and when they reached the wilderness of Sinai, there in the wilderness they pitched their camp; there facing the mountain Israel pitched camp.

Moses then went up to God, and the Lord called to him from the mountain, saying, 'Say this to the House of Jacob, declare this to the sons of Israel, "You yourselves have seen what I did with the Egyptians, how I carried you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself. From this you know that now, if you obey my voice and hold fast to my covenant, you of all the nations shall be my very own, for all the earth is mine. I will count you a kingdom of priests, a consecrated nation."'

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 99:2-3. 5. R. v.3

(R.) We are his people:
the sheep of his flock.

1. Cry with joy to the Lord, all the earth.
Serve the Lord with gladness.
Come before him, singing for joy. (R.)
2. Know that he, the Lord, is God.
He made us, we belong to him,
we are his people, the sheep of his flock. (R.)
3. Indeed, how good is the Lord,
eternal his merciful love.
He is faithful from age to age. (R.)

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans 5:6-11

We were still helpless when at his appointed moment Christ died for sinful men. It is not easy to die even for a good man – though of course for someone really worthy, a man might be prepared to die – but what proves that God loves us is that Christ died for us while we were still sinners. Having died to make us righteous, is it likely that he would now fail to save us from God's anger? When we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, we were still enemies; now that we have been reconciled surely we may count on being saved by the life of his Son? Not merely because we have been reconciled but because we are filled with joyful trust in God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have already gained our reconciliation.

Gospel Acclamation

Mark 1:15

Alleluia, alleluia!

The kingdom of God is near;
repent and believe the Good News!
Alleluia!

Gospel

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 9:36 – 10:8

When Jesus saw the crowds he felt sorry for them because they were harassed and dejected, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is rich but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send labourers to his harvest.'

He summoned his twelve disciples, and gave them authority over unclean spirits with power to cast them out and to cure all kinds of diseases and sickness.

These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon who is called Peter, and his brother Andrew; James the son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Zealot and Judas Iscariot, the one who was to betray him. These twelve Jesus sent out, instructing them as follows:

'Do not turn your steps to pagan territory, and do not enter any Samaritan town; go rather to the lost sheep of the House of Israel. And as you go, proclaim that the kingdom of heaven is close at hand. Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out devils. You received without charge, give without charge.'
